*Commemorating

Aussie

Prisoners of War

APRIL 2nd

APRIL 2nd breakfast

Thursday April 2nd 2009

We salute our Aussie Soldiers and their stories!

This is certainly an event that you won't want to miss as we pay tribute to these courageous Australian heroes.

Lest we forget the men and women of honor - for they have shaped our nation. With the eldest of our special guests now in his early nineties, this will provide one of the last public opportunities for our nation to hear from these amazing gentlemen.

Joining us for this absolute unique pre-ANZAC DAY event are these brave men:

POW - Doug Nix was captured and imprisoned by the Axis forces during World War II. Doug enlisted when he was 17 in 1938. Doug saw action in the North African and Greek campaigns prior to being captured in Kalamata, Greece on 28 April 1941.

POW - Norm Anderton, WW2 POW of the Japanese captured during the fall of Singapore in 1942. He was a member of F Force Thai Burma Rail and a prisoner for 3 years. F Force was made up of 3400 Australian and British soldiers who worked on the centre of the Burma railway.

POW - Phil Greville, Korean War POW. Phil was the highest ranking Australian to be taken as a POW in Korea. He was a Captain and captured in 1952. He later went on to become a Brigadier.

POW - Gordon Jamieson, WW2 POW captured by the Japanese during the fall of Singapore in 1942. He was a member of F Force Thai Burma Rail and a prisoner for 3 years.

"The Boat That Rocked" is an ensemble musical comedy in which the romance takes place between the young people of the '60s and pop music. Centring about a band of rogue DJs that captivated Britain, playing the music that defined a generation and standing up to a government that, incomprehensibly, preferred jazz.,
